In The Matrix, Neo is told by Trinity that Morpheus is not a good choice for a savior, and that he should be working for someone else. Why? Did Morpheus do something to make Trinity feel that way? A: I don't think that Neo ever meets Morpheus. Neo accepts Oracle's guidance, and he only talks to her. So this conversation has nothing to do with Morpheus. Trinity: Do you think there is a way out for Neo? Oracle: Yes. But it is complicated. So we have to be very careful and precise. What are we dealing with? Trinity: A program, A virus. Oracle: That is what you would refer to it as, but it is more than that. It is designed to propagandize the Matrix into accepting a false reality, as it's called. False reality. Whereas the Matrix recognizes that there is only one reality, and it is our choices that determine what that reality becomes. Morpheus will be the agent of the virus, which will be inserted into the Matrix at a particular place and a particular time, which we will now define. Trinity: Where? When? How? Oracle: Thursday, November 13, 2017 at 9 am, to be precise. So, Neo has not "chosen" Morpheus at all. Neo has chosen to work with Oracle. A: Because Trinity is in fact still alive, and because Trinity has access to all information that Morpheus has access to, and it's Morpheus that explicitly tells Neo that Morpheus is not a good choice. This may seem counter-intuitive, but when you think about it, the choice of who is going to save you is not in Neo's hands, it is in the hands of whoever is going to save you from the agents of the Matrix, whether that be Morpheus, Smith, or whoever else. A: Well we can take it from the point of view of his choice is in fact his last option to save himself, and that b7e8fdf5c8

Well-known member I have seen a lot of your videos recently and your techniques have improved a lot. It also looks like your knowledge of how to make them has improved as well. Keep it up, I've begun following your tutorials more. Goldfish Wally Purple (you can replace the colors and change the angles but this should be a good example) Images on this site containing the [watermark] tag are not included here for usage in watermarked backgrounds. If you wish to use the images please contact me first with your plans. Not too difficult to create a new texture for the backgrounds. The main trick is with the transparency. You can only sample a specific number of pixels if there is alpha present. You have to know the exact location of the pixels. It's hard to explain...try to find out for yourself. Well-known member Hello, If you have a little patience and practice, you can create graphics for the skins of the game. I tried this once when I was creating the Sonic 2 Spinroar skin. It took me a long time to draw and paint the graphics. However, once you have the same art assets and style, it makes skin creation much easier. Gwyneth Paltrow's Stylist Made Her Overnight 'Eaters' Pal Shortly after the first glass of wine, Gwyneth Paltrow's hairstylist Andy Harber gave her a clipping of her hair "from the most dramatic part of my face." "I could tell he was trying something different because he had such an original approach to my haircut," says the Oscar-winning actress, 52. "Once I saw the end result, I
